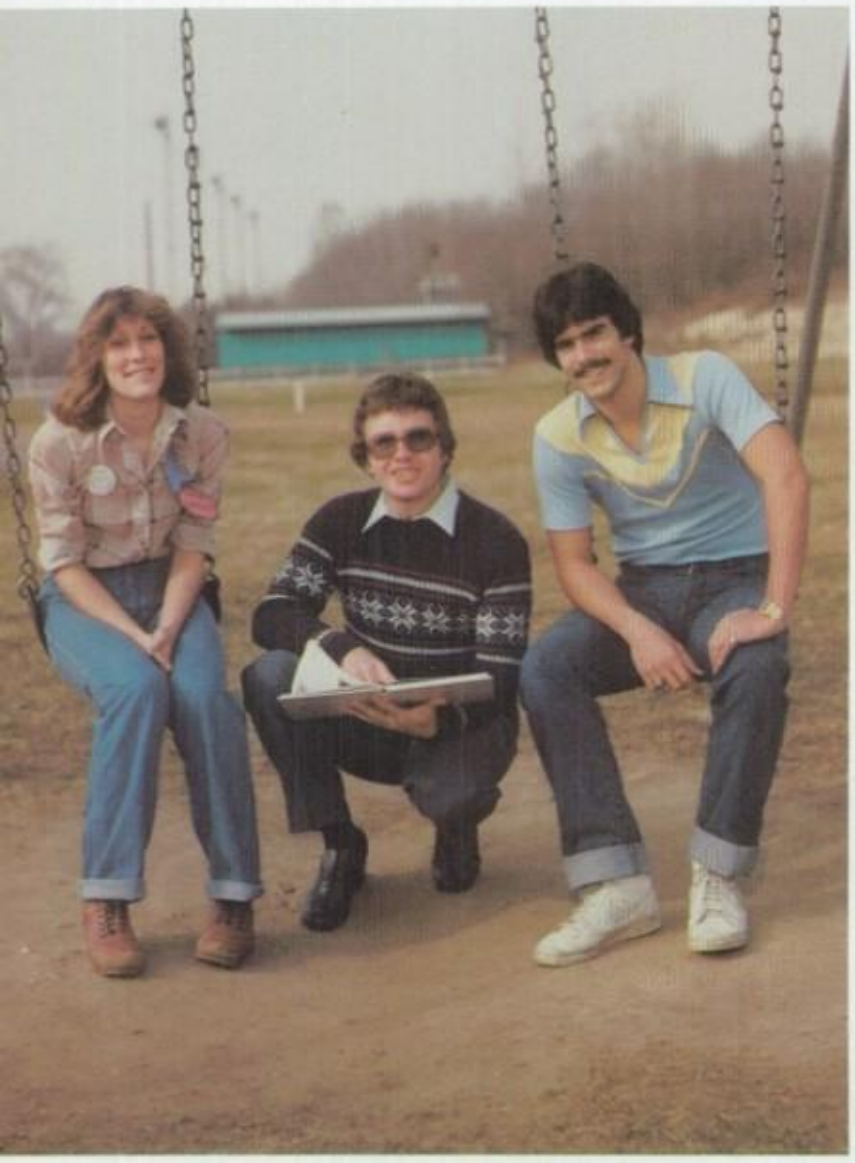
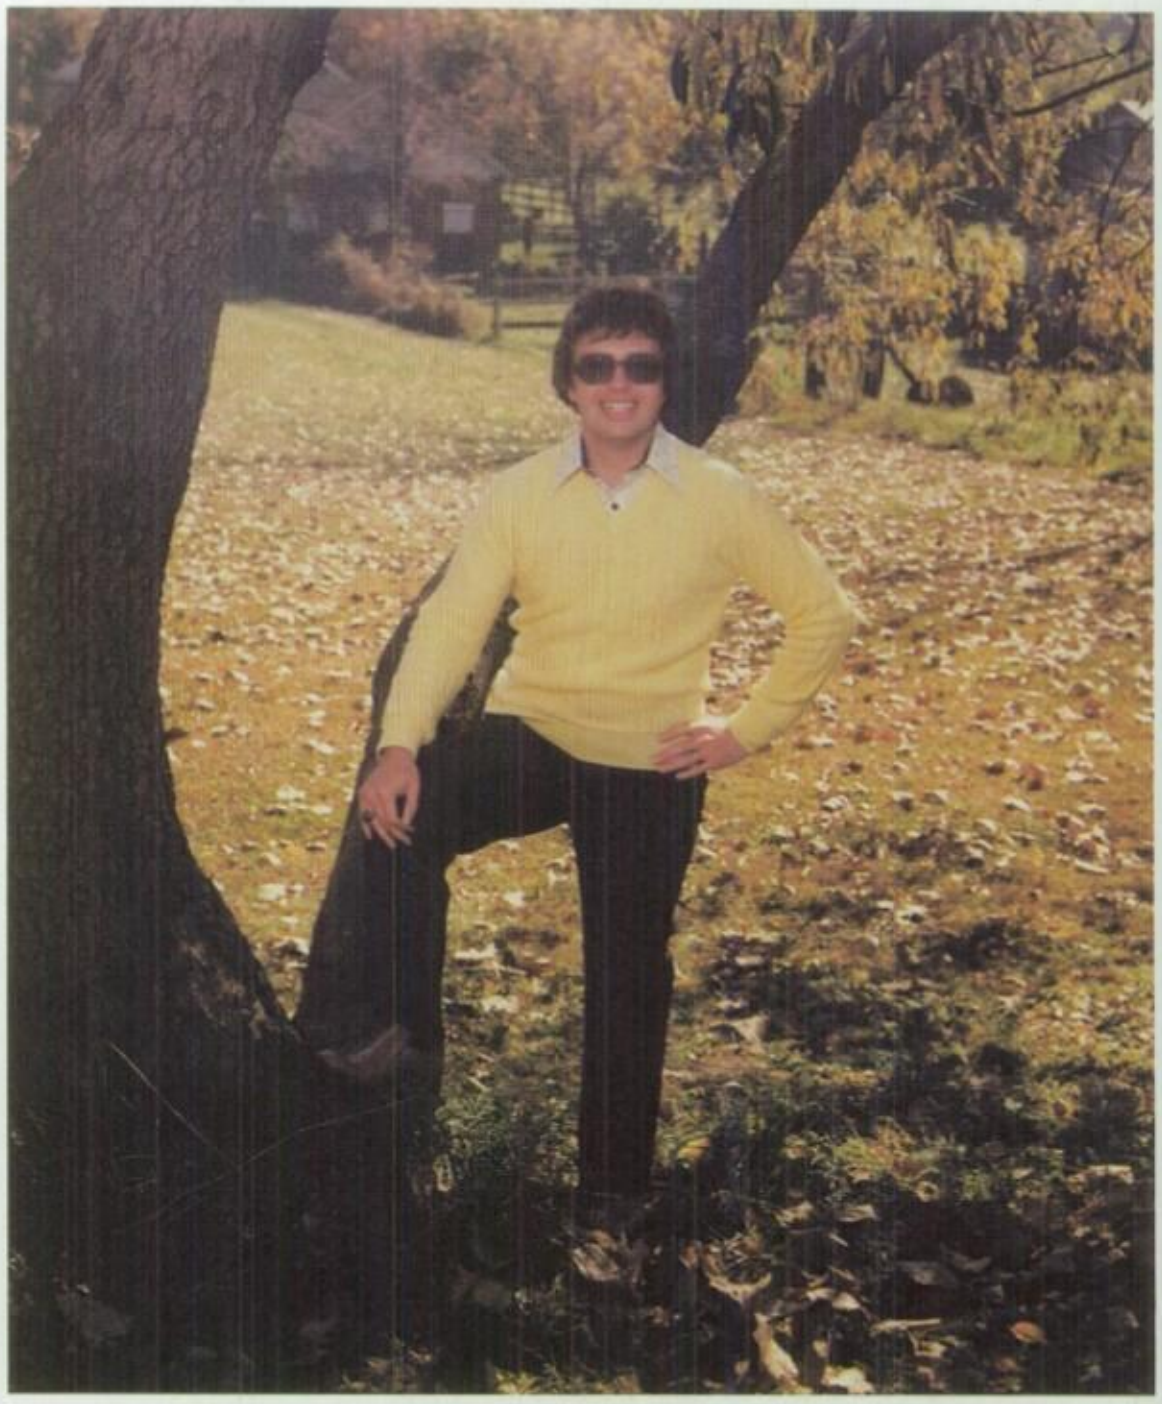
GOALS REACHED

Through the devotion and guidance of Mr. McConnell, along with the creative talents and efforts of each staff member, the goals of producing interesting newspapers and a quality yearbook were reached.



"R.M. found us again, Pat."



Mr. Ron McConnell, Advisor

"Bubba's favorite pastime."

COACH MCCUTCHEON RETIRES

It is with much remorse that we acknowledge Coach Bob McCutcheon's retirement. Through 14 years he has guided our gridders to much success. His overall record of 74-61-3 shows he has maintained great consistency during his tenure. Included in those victories was a fine 9-0-1 season registered in 1974.

All those associated with Coach McCutcheon thank him for his time, patience, and understanding.

CAPTAINS PROVIDE LEADERSHIP

North once again returned to their winning ways on the grid-iron. Our Big Blue gridders cracked the magical .500 season barrier as we finished 6-4 for the 1980 campaign.

The heroes were many, but most of the names belonged to those fabulous seniors, whose experience and leadership helped shape the season.

Included in our six wins were five conference victories, which enabled us to finish fourth in our nine team league.

This year's captains, who provided much of that leadership, were Todd Byers and Mark Kinsey. Their attitudes helped make North a big success this year. Others seniors who provided timely inspiration to their teammates were Ken Diehl, Dave Carlisle, and Mark Hill. All of the above mentioned players received conference honors, which indicates that they were also recognized for their playing abilities.

Coach McCutcheon was once again aided by a fine coaching staff. Included in this group were Greg Starr, who completed his seventh season as a varsity football coach. Also Randy Baughman and Bob Zontini contributed heavily to making this season a good one.

Queen Deana Kinsey

QUEEN DEANA CROWNED

The 1980 Homecoming Queen, Deana Kinsey, was crowned October 10 by last year's Queen, Barb Ronald. Deana chose Curt Quillen as her escort. Senior attendants were Tina Schumacher who was escorted by Todd Butler, and Marla Briggs who chose Jay Gibbs as her escort.

The Homecoming Court watched the exciting game from a float decorated by the Student Council.

The I.V.N. Marching Band provided music for the ceremonies which took place at half time.

Music for the after-game dance was provided by Disc Jockey Doug Williams. The theme was "Xanadu" and the colors were burgundy, pink, royal blue, black and gray. Decorations were furnished by the Pep Club.

POLICY ESTABLISHED

The Student Council accomplished many things this year. They helped establish a new policy for overdue library books, and helped regulate school fund-raising projects. Council also kept the lines of communication open between administration and students.

BEING A SENIOR . . .

Being a senior means spending so much time partying that you may have to come back for another year.

Being a senior is being at the top of one ladder and realizing it's just the bottom of another.

Being a senior is like being a monkey who is about to spring the lock on a bananna plantation.

A senior knows that the feeling of freedom is near, but many memories inflict regret.

What are you girls doing? Writing a fan letter to Kiko Garcia?

I love being a senior!

These Varsity blazers are the latest fad; just ask Mark.

"Keep your eyes on the copy, John!"

Deana seems to really be concentrating.

This singer seems to be entertaining the senior girls.

TOUGH SEASON

This year's golf team struggled through most of the year, but still managed to end with a quite respectable record. Included in their victories was a five stroke thrashing of District-rival Indian Valley South. Also, North handed Central Catholic its only league loss. Freshman Tommy Columbo received the Tom Helle award, which signifies great promise in a young golfer.

MARCHING MUSICIANS

Under the new leadership of Mr. Joel Ribo, our band presented many fine half time performances and several concerts. The Marching Big Blue were seen at numerous parades and competitions around Ohio, besides participating in our own local events. The band plans to use the experience they gained to help make next year's performances successful.

OUTSTANDING 15-7

An outstanding season ended in an extremely heartbreaking 67-50 sectional final loss. Coach Caviness's troops had entered the game with a 15-6 overall record and a 5-5 Inter-Valley Conference mark.

This year's squad was led by the fine leadership of seniors Tom DeMattio, Jeff Matlick, Mark Kinsey, Terry Vesco, and Curt Quillen.

YOUNG CAGE STARS

Coach Starr guided this year's reserve cagers to an impressive 18-2 record. Those eighteen wins are the most ever recorded by an IVN junior varsity team.

ROW 1: Mgr. Scott Ault, George Henry, Kirk Davis, Dave Fellers, Roy DeMattio, Todd Butler. ROW 2: Coach Greg Starr, Jody Gibson, Chris Davis, Packey Velleca, Dan Booth, Dale Reichman, Ron McPeek.

Coach Zontini's freshmen struggled through a 6-8 season. Included in their six victories was an impressive 50-48 victory over Garaway.

SKILLS IMPROVED

Our girls' teams this year ended with a 9-11 varsity and 11-9 reserve record respectively. The girls improved their basketball skills and are looking forward to a productive season next year.

"THE BOARDING HOUSE REACH"

The play this year, a three act comedy concerning the antics of the Maxwell family, brought many laughs from an appreciative audience. Wilbur Maxwell, played by Todd Butler, finally got his bicycle despite many set backs during the play.

Mr. Hamilton deserves a big thanks for his fine direction of such a large cast of characters. He spent much time and effort in making our play a success for everyone.

Roger Metzger extends the welcome.

Rev. Bradley Call addresses the graduating class.

Tina and Mark revisit the past by reading the class history.

Valedictorian John Pretorius delivers his speech.

For the first time in many years, the Indian Valley North graduation ceremonies were held at Kelly Field. A capacity crowd turned out to see 73 eager senior receive their educational rewards.

Following Marla Briggs' invocation, Rev. Bradley Call addressed the 1981 class. He spoke on the meaning of the class motto, "We who have lived well, laughed often, and loved much have achieved much success."

The valedictorian address, preceded by the class history, was then given by John Pretorius. While the Senior Ensemble happily sang "What I Did For Love" and "Ode To Joy", Kim Caldwell prepared to deliver her salutatorian speech.

Finally, the moment came. As Principal Bill Wenger read the roll call, Mr. Ron McPeek, President of the Board of Education, presented the diplomas. And then with the final crossover of the tassles and the benediction, the 1981 graduating class of Indian Valley North stood in line to receive congratulations and best wishes.

The Senior Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Joel Ribo, sang "What I Did for Love," and "Ode to Joy."

Kim Caldwell, Salutatorian, gave her speech of thanks.

Mark Kinsey receives his diploma from Board President Ron McPeek.

Happy graduates.

The 1981 graduates receive congratulations from the class advisors, Mr. Pretorius and Mr. Pierson.

UNSERE DEUTSCHE GAESTE

Through the "Friendship Connection" I.V.N. halls heard the sounds of German being spoken by native speakers. Our friends from Germany were hosted by Beth Vesco, Gina Warner, Lynn Reichman, and Steve Sullivan.

The "Friendship Connection" is a program of international high school student exchange in which an Ohio family with a son or daughter who is studying German hosts a German youth of the same age for four weeks, with the German family reciprocating by hosting Ohio students.

The program is designed to show that a people to people exchange is the best way to promote understanding. Because there were many more Germans who applied than Ohioans, I.V.N. was asked to provide host homes.

Katrin Naumann, Sabine Doring, Norbert Harres, and Uwe Fesch from Lauterbach in Hessen were well received by the North student body and made to feel at home. Many friends were made and each of the guests wishes to return as well as have friends from North visit them in Germany.

Mark and Donnie with the OWE turkey

"What a catch!"

"You can come off Cloud 9 now, Mr. Metzger."

"You talkin' to us?"

"This is pretty heavy stuff."
